

Young at Heart Programme

Discover Ireland, meet like-minded people from all over the world with our programme for mature students (50+).

1 or 2 week programme, fixed start dates:

13 June 2011, 25 July 2011, 26 September 2011, 5 December 2011

Includes:

20 hours English Language Tuition per week

Host family accommodation (single room, half board) OR

Accommodation in Single Occupancy Studio Apartments OR Hotel

Optional Airport Transfer

Tailor made social programme for mature students: choose between our range of exciting activities and discover the real Ireland at discounted prices

- Discover the great Irish literary tradition with a tour of literary Dublin and drinks in the Stags head, traditional pub home of the Trinity College Literary Society and James Joyce favourite pub
- Learn to cook Irish traditional soda bread and fresh salmon pate'
- Indulge with a rich afternoon tea in the Shelburne, historical hotel in the heart of Dublin city of incredible charm and atmosphere
- Be amazed by Irish natural beauty with a coastal walk in the fishing village of Howth, Stroll around the fish market and enjoy a seafood meal in the local restaurants
- Wilde, O'Casey, Shaw and all the great Irish dramatists and writers: learn all about Irish literary tradition and enjoy a play in one of the famous Dublin theatres
- Discover the west of Ireland with a trip to Galway and Clare, home of great musical tradition, the world famous Cliffs of Moher and the impressive landscape of the Burren
- Learn about Irish music with tin whistle and Irish dancing classes and orchestral music events
- Get crafty with arts and crafts workshop

Prices:

- Tuition: €215 per week (gross)

- Accommodation with host family, single room half board: €165€ per week
(€185 per week for the July programme)

- Accommodation in Single Occupancy Studio Apartments: €245 per week

- Hotel accommodation: quoted on request

- Airport transfer: €75 each way

We apply registration and accommodation booking fees to all bookings: 105€. Course book: 30€. Afternoon and evening activities extra, to be paid on site